SailGP Exclusion Zone

SailGP is back on Sydney Harbour on 8-9 February 2025 for the KPMG Australia Sail Grand Prix.

Waterway restrictions will be in place from Friday 7th February until Sunday 9th February, refer to the event exclusion zone map for further details.

Racing will take place within an exclusion zone from 2pm-5pm on Saturday and Sunday. The racecourse will be set daily within the exclusion zone according to the wind direction. During the race, a 6 knot and no wash restriction will be active around the exclusion zone as detailed in event map.

There will be marked navigation channels around Vaucluse and Point Piper where ferries and other vessel will be required to keep moving. There will be no navigable channel around Bradleys Head for the 2025 event.

Tune into 89.3 FM during the event for live race commentary

Follow directions from Maritime and Police vessels to dedicated spectator areas where boaters can anchor or drift to watch the racing.

Please see the Exclusion Zone Map attached.
